Horse Items.

The horse occurs on some standards and coins of past periods.

In England there are 2,000,000 of draft and pleasure horses besides 1,000,000 agricultural horses.

Lexington sold for $15,000, and one of his colts has since sold for $40,000, while $50,000 was refused for another.

McClure, in his recent work, says that there are some 70,000 horses in this country, worth from $3,000 to $10,000 each.

England owes to Arabia the possession of her improved and perhaps unrivalled breed of horse, adapted to the turf, field and road.

In the United States it is estimated that there are eight millions of horses, valued at between two and three thousand millions dollars.

In records of the past we are assured that the horse was not regarded as a beast of burden, but rather ranked among the champions of nations. As such the poets sang of him and Scripture records but few instances where he was subjected to servile service.

The number of horses in Russia is greater in proportion to the population than it is in the greatest horse region in this country, which is Kentucky. Russia has one horse to every three persons, while Kentucky has one horse to about four and a half of its population.

GOVERNOR SMITH.—James M. Smith is our choice for Governor. There is not a man in the State who would make a better one. We do not want a better one, and are glad to believe that the people of Georgia are in accord with us in this opinion. We respect the claims and claims of others, but none have more excellents or better claims to the gubernatorial office than our present excellent Governor.—Rome Courier.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

CLARKSVILLE, GA., June 5, 1872.

Editors Constitution: The Democrats cannot afford to make a mistake in the coming campaign. If a Democratic ticket can possibly prevail, it will never do to waste ourselves on Horace Greeley. If such a ticket cannot prevail, it were supreme folly to put it in the field, for thereby the opportunity would be lost of rendering effectual the split in the Republican ranks.

A conference in this emergency has been called at Baltimore. This body will weigh the statistics of the election of 1868, party changes since, the effects of the action at Philadelphia this week, the "Liberal" strength which Mr. Greeley can command, the general political out-look throughout the States, and will reach, it is to be hoped, a patriotic and discreet conclusion as to its duty. The men of the Voorhees type will be there, "refusing aught of this worship." The unreserved "Cincinnati indorsement" men will be there, who, weary and impatient under twelve years of defeat, will clamor for their cause with equal ardor.

Unity of action is essential to success, either way. How can this best be attained?

It is to presumed that all who will be at Baltimore will be true Democrats, met in council for the common good.

First, then, let a Democratic platform be put forth; not a mere endorsement of the platform at Cincinnati, but a distinct platform for the feet of Democrats to stand upon, so that an identity and individuality as a party be steadfastly maintained.

Thirdly, let the convention expressly empower the electors who shall be voted for on that ticket in the several States to exercise their own judgment in casting their votes in the electoral college.

These three suggestions are based upon the following consideration:

First, A fusion with the Republicans would be the death of our party: coalesce if need be, but let there be no blotting out of the lines of division. Frame a national party platform, one bearing the impress and breathing the spirit of our Godlike fathers, that shall be as a firmament in the midst of the waters, dividing the waters from the waters. If then, a deluge be needed to destroy the evil and idolatrous generation about the White House, let the fountains of the deep be broken up, and let the windows of heaven be opened, but when the combination of the flood from below and from above shall have done its work, put back the firmament of division, and hold the floods fast, each in his place. Without this predetermined purpose, the bow of peace that has sprung over the "bloody chasm" as a false and faithless symbol of good.

2. By voting for the man of our choice, and not for a choice of evils, the principles of Democracy will be kept alive and strong in the popular heart.

3. The electors, left free to cast their votes for the Baltimore or Cincinnati nominee can know before they meet how stands the popular ballot, and then, in the light of this knowledge, will be as sensible as now is senseless the cry of

ANYTHING TO BEAT GRANT.

MR. STEPHENS, I THINK, IS NOT A JEFFERSONIAN ACCORDING TO JEFFERSON.

Editors Constitution: The Constitution of the United States gave us the "most powerful nation on earth."

Mr. Jefferson, in his first inaugural address, as well as in most of his messages, speaks of the government as a nation—a great nation a powerful nation—and never in any instance mentions it as a league or compact to be broken at the option of any one or more States. He recognized the Constitution as embracing the fundamental principles, not only essential to our national welfare but of vital importance in limiting and controlling local self-government.

He recognizes the Constitution as giving to the people, not only a National government, but clearly defining and declaring what shall or shall not be admitted into the constitutions of the several States.

He also recognized the fact, that if any State should form a Constitution in conflict with the Constitution of the United States, that such State Constitution, and all the laws in pursuance thereof, would be null and void.

He held that the people of each State had the reserved right to make their own State Constitutions, and legislate for themselves in their own way, subject to the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. Stephens, whilst claiming to be a Jeffersonian, denies that we heve any such government; and condemns Mr. Greeley for the renunciation of the Jeffersonian doctrine, that subject to our constitutional obligations to so administer the government as to make its burdens and its blessings fall equally upon every citizen—we should at the same time aim at local self-government.

There is not a word or a line in the Cincinnati platform, or in Mr. Greeley's letter of acceptance, in conflict with the first inaugural address of Thomas Jefferson, or with any other of his messages; so that, if Mr Stephens must necessarily claim to be the upholder of the orthodox Democracy, he is in duty bound, as a watchman on the tower, to give us a lucid and well defined platform.

He should tell us in his clear and terse language, what Democracy really is, and to what extent, and what way is it allowed to control the institutions of our country.

We have heard enough of high sounding words about Democracy and "the great principles of Democracy."

It is now high time for Mr. Stephens, or some other luminary, to make it so plain that "he that runs may read." If Jefferson was in error, then please give us the truth!

The Little People.

The Danbury News says the reason school boys delight to dig and explore caves, is because of the recesses there.

Walter, a five year old, was surprised at breakfast by the presence of a diminutive egg, served for his special delectation. He thus accounted for the eggs smallness: "Mama, I think the chicken was learning to lay."

A teacher in Chicago, said to one of her pupils: "James, what good thing—what great sacrifice are you willing to give up during the Lenten season?" Jimmie meditated about ten seconds and responded: "I think I'll give up going to Sunday school."

Teacher—"What bird did Noah send out of the ark?" Smallest boy in the class, after a pause—"A dove sir." Teacher—"Very well, but I should have thought some of you big boys would have known that." Tall pupil—"Please sir, that boy ought to know, sir, 'cause his father's a bird ketcher, sir."

Useful.

Plant your yards full of flowers. They are not only pleasing to sight and smell but act as disinfectants.

Two cups flour, one cup of milk, one-half cup of butter, one-half cup of sugar, one-half cup of molasses, one cup of raisins, one teaspoon soda, steam two hours, serve with sauce, and you have a fine steam pudding.

TO CURE RINGWORMS.—Take a good Cuba cigar; smoke it sufficiently long to accumulate one-fourth or one-half inch of ashes upon the end of the cigar. Now wet the whole surface of the sore with the saliva from the mouth; then rub the ashes from the end of the cigar thoroughly into and all over the sore Do this three times a day, and inside of a week all will be smooth and well.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Democratic Conventions of Kansas and Iowa indicate an overwhelming sentiment for the Cincinnati platform and nominees. The resolutions contain this paragraph: But when lawless ambition, imbecility, corruption and man worship dominates in a party, it is the duty of all citizens, without regard to previous political affiliations, and forgetful of past and buried differences, to join their hands and hearts in any effort to crush such a party and drive its leaders from power.

The Iowa Convention instructed its delegates to act as a unit; resolved that the principals nominated by the late Cincinnati Convention, taken in connection with the letter of Horace Greeley accepting the nomination of that convention, constitute a platform on which all the elements of the opposition to the present corrupt Federal government can stand.

The English Government will ask eight month's recess of the Geneva Board of Arbitrators. The United States will neither favor nor oppose the recess, unless England agrees to the supplemental article. In case the recess is denied, England will not present her case.

The tax on snuff remains at thirty-three cents.

BRACKVILLE, ONT., June 12.—The Steamer Kingston burned to the water's edge. One hundred passengers were on board. All were saved except Mrs. Dr. Jones, of Montreal, who jumped overboard with an improperly adjusted life-preserver. The boat was run ashore on Grandeur Island, when the fire, which originated in a stateroom amidships, over the engineroom, spread so rapidly that but one boat could be lowered, which was filled with women and children, but swamped on touching the water. The other passengers and the crew jumped into the water and struggled ashore. The propeller Dominion was hailed and brought the passengers to Brackville. Nothing of the cargo or baggage was saved. Loss on steamer $75,000, insured for $60,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., June 12.—The District delegations held caucuses to-night and elected delegates to act at the Baltimor Convention. All were favorable to Greeley and Brown.

In the Terra Haute District caucus Morton substituted Voorhees in place of Dowling for Delegate from the State at Large to the Democratic Convention. Lost by 76 to 95.

George W. Julian said, in the Liberal Republican caucus to-day, that he would be glad if the Democrats would take him as one of their standard bearers.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:
THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 1872.

TO LAWYERS.—A full report of the decisions of the Supreme Court is furnished to THE CONSTITUTION exclusively, by the Reporter of the Court.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We do not read anonymous letters and communications. The name and address of the writer are indispensable. Rejected communications we cannot undertake either to return or preserve.

☞ The well known elephant Romeo is dead. He was a hundred years old and worth $50,000. He had killed five keepers.

☞ The plan of combining the opposition to Grant, given by us in our yesterday's issue, comes from ex Governor Randolph, of New Jersey. It has been recommended by the leading men of both parties, and is being extensively circulated.

☞ The Columbus Enquirer says that the Savannah News is not reporting right. For instance, it puts Troup and McDuffie counties as anti-Greeley, though Troup was willing to fight under a Democrat or form a temporary alliance, and McDuffie is for extending a welcome hand to all allies.

Personal.

We had a call yesterday from an old cavalry comrade, Mr. Mark Whitman, who is traveling all over the South for that excellent liquor house, E. H. Chase & Co., of Louisville, Kentucky. We commend him wherever he goes.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Our pamphlet copies of the Decisions of the last term of the Supreme Court are now ready and are being sent out. Send in orders at once. This will insure the receipt of the Decisions at the earliest possible moment. Pamphlets, $1 00 per copy.

Still Crushing the Rebellion.

On the day of the nomination at Philadelphia, Mrs. Grant received the following dispatch:

Mrs. President Grant: My warmest congratulations on the General's enthusiastic nomination for a second term. May God bless him, and preserve his valuable life till every vestige of rebellion is crushed out.

GEORGE H. STEWART.

☞ That eminent friend of Georgia, the noble Clews, Henry Clews of the bonds, has had a visit from the "Injuns," now sojourning in New York. At the time of their visit the Japanese were there on some money matters. Clews, Injun and Japanese make a lovely trio. If the Orientals and the Red men have any bonds they had better keep their eyes open when in Clews' vicinity.

Dr. Huston.

Dr. Huston has been acquitted of the grave charges against him, of heinous personal immorality. The testimony was positive both for and against him. He has to run another ordeal before the Ecclesiastical Court, to be appointed by the next Southern Methodist Conference. The verdict of acquittal, coming from a committee divided in opinion, will not cure the taint of the charges.

How the States Move.

The Delaware Democracy has spoken for a straight nomination and against Greeley.

Tennessee led off for Greeley. South Carolina, Florida, Kansas and Iowa have followed example. Pennsylvania has sent a five-sixth majority of Greeley delegates. Indiana also sends a large majority, of its delegates for Greeley.

This is the showing so far.

The Trip to Baltimore.

The cheap rates offered by the ticket agent of the State Road, Colonel Wrenn, to go to Baltimore and return, to attend the Convention, will be largely taken advantage of. Colonel Wrenn informs us that tickets are already for sale. He also informs us that if delegates to the State Convention, on the 26th, want to go right on after its adjournment, they can do so on the tickets. We do not doubt that hundreds will attend. The tickets last for thirty days.

The Laborers' Strike.

The laborers' strike is growing daily in New York. It is sweeping in all classes of labor. At least 40,000 men are now engaged in it. Unfortunately, some of them have departed from their peace programme. One man shot another workman who refused to go into the strike, and men were bound over for threatening to burn a piano factory whose proprietor refused to give in. These resorts to violence are unfortunate and ill-advised. The very moment that law is broken, that moment the movement will lose the sympathy of the good.

☞ The items which make up the sum total of the claims for losses by rebel cruisers, filed by the United States Commissioners with the Geneva arbitrators, give a total of $19,081,429, including $1,120,795 for losses from increased war premiums. The direct losses, or those from actual capture, are distributed among the rebel cruisers as follows: Alabama, $6,547,610; Shenandoah, $6,488,320; Florida, $3,698,600; Tallahassee, $579,956; Georgia, $383,976; Chickamauga, $95,655; Nashville, $69,537; Retribution, $20,335; Sumter, $10,696; Sallie, $5,540; and Boston, $509.

Voorhees Will Abide Baltimore.

The Washington Patriot gives this gratifying piece of information about the gallant Voorhees. We presume it speaks authoritatively. It places the noble Indianian right before the country. Whatever his individual views, and they are emphatic, he will abide Baltimore.

Let his example be followed:

"When the Baltimore Convention has acted, Mr. Voorhees will unquestionably be among the foremost and strongest in vindicating its creed and advocating its nominees, whatever and whoever they may be, and his voice will be found as potential in this campaign as it has been in those that have gone before."

Call for Democratic Meeting in Fulton to Nominate Delegates to the Democratic State Convention.

ATLANTA, GA., June 1, 1872.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Fulton county, this day assembled, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democrats of Fulton county are hereby requested to meet in Mass Convention at the City Hall on Saturday the 15th instant, at 12 o'clock m., for the purpose of selecting six delegates to represent the Democratic party of Fulton county in the State Convention to be held in this city on the 26th instant.

T. W. J. HILL,
Chairman of Democratic Ex. Com.
P. EDWARDS, Secretary.

Between Two Fires.

THE CONSTITUTION is unfortunate enough at this time to labor under the displeasure of two classes of journals, the extreme Greeley and straight-nomination advocates. Our brash Greeley friends, like the Southern Recorder, appear much exercised at us, while our rip-snorting straight allies, like Mr. Stephens, have bounced us vigorously, as the readers of both papers can voluminously and perhaps mournfully testify under the affliction of seven-league editorials, which, of course, duty required them to wade through.

We feel much encouraged at this double fire. In butting against any sort of ultraism we feel that we are doing yeoman service for the right. Neither of the extreme courses is calculated to keep the party united and without unity smash on any line is inevitable.

One good feature is that both of these displeased parties, clever, honest parties they are, too, have had to misrepresent us, of course unintentionally, to get ammunition for shot. Our worthy brother of the Recorder says that we have argued that a Democratic ticket has no prospect of success. Gently, if you please. We have argued no such thing. This is one of the points we need light upon. If there is a prospect of success for a straight ticket, by Heavens we want it. It is not a question to be lightly decided. Our opinion is rather unfavorable to the prospect. At the last elections the Democracy carried only 16 States, representing 138 electoral votes out of 367; the Radicals carried the rest, representing 229 electoral votes. There being 184 necessary to a choice, 46 votes have to be won. And as eight of the sixteen Democratic States were carried by small majorities, and as Oregon, one of them, is just reported as having gone Radical, it is not certain that we can hold all of these. Nearly all of the Radical States were carried by large majorities, and the prospect of altering them is therefore smaller.

But while the chances are against we must not yield them as hopeless, until a fair, accurate survey and a judicious calculation of probabilities is made.

But grant that Democratic success is hopeless, that does not bring us to the certain support of Greeley. Then arises the most important question whether Greeley can carry enough Republicans to give us victory. This is about as nice a calculation as the other, and it needs careful attention. We must not mistake here. To be whipped under Greeley's lead would be simply awful. It makes a Democrat's stomach convulse like a volcano to think of it. We have been told that large numbers of Liberal Republicans will be carried to Greeley by Democratic support, that are now reticent, that they won't break Radical ranks on an uncertainty, and therefore nothing can evoke Greeley's full Republican strength but Democratic endorsement.

We must confess that we want to look into these matters more fully. And we doubt if any one can decide them intelligently but the Baltimore Convention, composed of posted, clear-headed, sagacious men from every section of the country, combining their information, and aggregating the result.

If, therefore, Greeley cannot poll enough Republicans to thrash Grant, Democracy should not touch him. If he can, it should, in our judgment.

Then there's our straight nomination friends who whack at us as wildly of the mark as the Recorder. They put us for Greeley, whether or not, and supplement the lick with the scattering conclusion that an abandonment of principle is involved, and this lick cuts beyond at every Greeley or contingent Greeley man in the party. They make the fatal error of supposing that men want Greeley as a luxury because they will gulp him as a medicine, and that a man of sense and principle cannot adopt a disagreeable programme to advance the cause without cutting loose from his principles.

Both extremes make a huge mistake. Our Greeley friends musn't urge Greeley as a choice, but as a necessity. They musn't push him on the party as a luscious bait of strawberries and cream. That repels our straight friends and makes folks sick. They must handle the venerable Chappaquan gingerly. He must be taken, if taken, with the manly fortitude and cool repression of disgust, that possesses the soul of a chap grievously sick, and gorging ipecac for cure. Our straight friends musn't claim a monopoly of patriotism, substitute sentiment for sense, or elevate fallible individual view above the less fallible aggregate judgment of the party's collective intelligence and patriotism. The man that shatters our party concert hurts us as badly as our most venomous enemy.

We are glad to see that THE CONSTITUTION is with the large majority of the counties that have spoken. And we trust to see them all together in supporting the party programme heartily, whether that be to support a straight ticket or Greeley.

Buckalew.

Our neighbor the Sun asked us the other day how we knew that Buckalew, the Democratic candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania, was for Greeley. It intimated a doubt of the statement, based upon the fact that Buckalew's platform was a square enunciation of Democratic principle.

"If there is one Democrat in the Union who is heartily in sympathy with the Cincinnati movement and believes that its indorsement is for the benefit of the Democratic party, that man is

CHARLES R. BUCKALEW.

Mr. Buckalew is no ordinary man. A Democrat from his childhood, he only follows the tenets of that party when he conscientiously believes it to be right. He was not egotistical when he said that the Democratic party knew he could neither be seduced nor intimidated. Spotless in his private and public life, he is callous to either partisan frenzy or malignity. His public life has been one grand aim—the right as he understood the right."

We could have preserved other proof.

Our neighbor will have to discard its delusion that a genuine Democrat cannot support Greeley in this juncture. There are times when love of country in a good man overrides every other consideration. Take Benning, for instance, and Hardeman, and Hartridge, and Crawford, and Wright, and Lamar, and Gordon, and Akin, and a host of others, honored names all, and trusty Democrats, and Georgia's noblemen, some thinking Greeley the best chance, and others ready to support him if the voice of the party, which is the voice of the true people of the land, calls them to do it.

No more of that, neighbor! The character and number of the men who have made up their minds either directly or conditionally in this matter should stop that sort of thing.

Don't think to make it a question of party fealty. There are too many against you for that, whom you will need if your policy should be adopted, and whose aid cannot be had by villifying and ostracizing them.

Stick to the argument.

Congratulating Grant.

After Grant's re-nomination, a lot of the Philadelphia delegates called on Grant to say good things, and tickle each other over the result. All sorts of obstroperous pledges were made by the delegates as to the tremendous things their States were going to do at the election. Benjamin Conley, of Georgia, went it slowly. He spoke with very heavy brakes on, which brought a grin.

"B. F. Conley, of Georgia, the Georgia Vice President, said: We will do the best we can for you, Mr. President. That is as much as Georgia can do. [Laughter.]

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

RANDOLPH COUNTY FOR UNITY AND REFERRING ALL TO BALTIMORE.

The Committee on Business consisted of Herbert Fielder, Chairman; Wm. Coleman, J. J. Harper, Thomas D. Douglass and L. S. Chastain. They submitted the following report, which was supported in a short address by the chairman of the committee, and unanimously adopted by the convention.

Resolved, That, in the opinion of this county convention, the times are perilous, and it is the duty of all true men to act with great caution. It is the right of all citizens to form and express opinions upon all public matters; to give the best advice, and contribute to the formation of a sound public judgment. Still, we have no infallible guide, and cannot know with absolute certainty that we are right. Our safety appears to be in the united action of the Democratic and conservative masses. It is the only apparent means by which we can exert any good influence toward the restoration of good national government, and the preservation of our State government. We would, therefore, caution our fellow citizens everywhere against all methods and temper in discussions which tend to produce bitterness and division.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the State to send their ablest and best men to the National Convention; and of that Convention to consent and be guided by the wisdom of experience and a thorough knowledge of the present situation in every part of the Union; and to take such action as appears to be best for the public good. The people should be prepared to refer all matters relating to the approaching Presidential election to that Convention; we should cherish a generous confidence in its wisdom and patriotism, and a disposition to support and abide its action without division.

Resolved, That we avail ourselves of the opportunity to express our confidence in the ability and patriotism of his Excellency James M. Smith, Governor of Georgia.

The meeting appointed as delegates to the State Convention, with power to appoint their alternates, Herbert Fielder, W. D. Kiddoo, William Coleman and N. T. Crozier.

LUMPKIN COUNTY FOR ABIDING BALTIMORE.

Colonel B. H. Corbin, Hon. J. . Wood, Colonel Boyd and Colonel R. A. Quillian.

On motion, the meeting agreed to abide the decision of the Baltimore Convention.

The Dahlonega Signal says Greeley stock in that section is above par.

FRANKLIN COUNTY FOR A STRAIGHT TICKET, BUT WILL ABIDE BALTIMORE.

Delegates—John W. Osborn, T. Crymes, A. J. Morris, A. W. Brawner, B. P. Vandiver, S. H. Mosely, R. D. Yow, and L. N. Tribble.

The resolutions call for a straight nomination, and oppose a coalition, but will abide Baltimore if it declines to make a nomination.

Popular Political Feeling.

The Missouri Democratic county conventions save one going for Greeley. Only three State delegates are for a straight nomination.

The New Hampshire delegates to Baltimore are for Greeley.

The Montgomery county Democracy, Alabama, has resolved squarely for Greeley.

Hon. James Lyons, of Richmond, Virginia, has indorsed Mosby's position that he will vote for Grant in preference to Greeley.

Hon. Thomas S. Bocock, of Virginia, is for Greeley.

The country is daily assured by the Grant organs the Liberal Republican party is a myth. The following from the Illinois State Register would indicate that there is at least the nucleus of a party at the Sucker capital:

"The organization of the Liberal Republican Club in this city starts forward with a "grand impetus." Last night two hundred and fifty-six Republicans enrolled themselves under the Liberal movement and declared their devotion to Greeley and Brown. Political history shows no such unanimity and enthusiasm. Two hundred and fifty-six enrolled in one day, in one city, and all Republicans.

☞ Some one has taken the pains to place in pyramidal form the reasons assigned by Senator Sumner why Grant should not be re-elected. They are as follows:

IGNORANCE.
INCAPACITY.
BRIBE TAKING.
GIFT RECEIVING.
HEAD OF RING ROBBERS.
INSTIGATION OF FRAUDS.
NEPOTISM MOST SHAMEFUL.
APOLOGIST FOR CORUPT MEN.
VIOLATION OF THE CONSTITUTION.
MEDDLING IN STATE ELECTIONS

A Prophecy of Mr. Stephens.

From the Sun, February 23.

Grant is almost as certain to be their candidate as that to-morrow's sun will rise, and it is almost quite as certain that Sumner, Seward, Trumbull, Greeley, and other prominent malcontents will support him.

The idea of any one or more of these Radical chiefs either opposing Grant or co-operating with the Democracy is utterly fallacious and time will so prove it to be.

The nomination of Grant has turned out as prophesied. Sumner, Trumbull and Greeley are now all against Grant.

Against Greeley.

NEW YORK, June 1, 1872.

Editors Constitution: It is to be hoped the Baltimore Convention will not indorse the Cincinnati nomination for the Presidency. The Democratic party, as I understand it, has an aim and a purpose. It is a party of principle, and not expediency; it is to render attractive the realities of popular government; to allow free expression of public opinion. Such being the aim and object of the Democratic party, it might submit to much that is humiliating in a partisan sense to accomplish a patriotic object. But it could not expect to overthrow Grant with Greeley even if content to abase itself to the support of the latter, who has ever exhibited a contempt for it that minced no words in expressing itself, and as the Sunday Messenger and Times says: "And supposing it could stoop to merit that contempt by aiding its life-long calumniator to vault into the saddle of 'the man on horseback.'

What would the nation gain by the elevation of "the man on a hobby?" What would it profit by the exchange of King Stork for King Log? What would it gain by ousting from authority Sir Simon Bull-pup only to fill his place with Sir Pertinence Cabbagehead? To be drowned in an ocean of vagaries is a finale no more enviable than to be trampled to death by epauletted muskeeters. And if there were no other alternative, if Grant or Greeley had to be of necessity our affliction, we are not confident that many genuine Democrats would hesitate to prefer Grant to Greeley. Mr. Greeley's patriotism is eminently of that description which has a cast in its eye and only contemplates number one. His anxiety to purify the political atmosphere of Washington is wholly based upon the disinfectant properties of himself.

The Messenger and Times goes on to say Foreign Communism, Free Loveism et hoc genus omne all own him as a champion, and now lately, he proposes to kill the Democratic party with a political embrace and buds it in advance to glory in its enthusiasm. Which denotes death in a state of grace. "Men may change we are told, but principles never, and yet the metamorphosis of the latter in Democratic minds would have to surpass that of the Scriptural leopard in regard to his spots, or that of the Ethiopian in respect to his skin, before Horace Greeley could anticipate the voluntary tribute at the polls of a party he has so maliganantly misrepresented and traduced ever since he entered the arena of politics, and yet, as John Randolph once said, "Nothing is impossible in politics."

Wood-chopping clubs are all the rage here. Very fashionable to swing an axe. As Mr. Greeley and his adherents made it a necessity at the South some years ago, I do not expect to hear of any wood-chopping clubs in that region, for pleasure or entrusiasm, for a man who, a few years ago, was for chopping our heads off.

TALBOT.

☞ The Pickens Sentinel of the 23d instant says: "It is rumored that the Air-Line Railroad Company contemplate moving, at an early date, the present location of their road south of the Eighteen Mile Creek, which is said to be much the cheapest route. If this be true, it will relieve the county of all liability to the hundred thousand dollars subscribed by it in aid of the road, and still be as much benefit to the county."

It is believed also that three expeditions from this country are on their way to Cuba, one sailing from Philadelphia, one from a Southern port and the Fannie.

LOWELL, MASS., June 12.—The seventeenth International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association met to-day and temporarily organized by the choice of H. A. Sherman, of Cleveland, Ohio, as Chairman. After prayer by Rev. A. G. Hall, of Washington, Rev. D. H. Howell read selections from the Scriptures.

A letter was read from Jno. Wannemaker, President of the last convention, regretting his inability to be present.

Various committees were appointed, including one on permanent organization.

The attendance this forenoon was not very large.

The Democrats of the first Massachusetts district met in convention here to day, and elected E. W. Colcord, of Lawrence, and Joseph R Hayes, of Lowell, delegates to the National Convention at Baltimore. Resolutions recommending the adoption by Baltimore of the Cincinnati platform, were adopted.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 12.—The Columbia State Democratic Convention reassembled this morning. The committee on resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention recognize the movement which was organized at Cincinnati in May last, as the only one in this crisis calculated to revive individual liberty, and restore local self government.

Resolved, That this Convention accepts the Cincinnati platform as broad, liberal and just to all portions and classes and citizens of the republic.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that the interests of the whole country require that no seperate and distinct Democratic nomination should be made by the Baltimore Convention and the delegates appointed by this body are hereby instructed to oppose such nomination. A minority report favoring a straight nomination was tabled with only two dissenting votes.

A full delegation to the National Convention was then chosen. It represents all sections of the State and includes Hon Wm. Aiken. Ex-Senator Chestnut and Hon. W. D. Porter, of the State Democratic Executive Committee, having resigned, the Chair was authorized to appoint their successors. The Convention then adjourned sine die, after a brief and harmonious session.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., June 12—The State Democratic Convention met here this morning. Hon. John R. Coffroth was chosen permanent Chairman. After the opening address by the Chairman, a committee on resolutions, consisting of one delegate from each Congressional District, and a committee to select delegates to the Baltimore Convention, were appointed.

Considerable discussion arose on the question of the appointment of a committee to select the electoral ticket.

Hon. J. T. McDonald argued in favor of postponing the choice of the electors till after the meeting of the Baltimore Convention.

It was finally decided to postpone the selection of the electoral ticket.

Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks was then unanimously nominated for Governor, and Washington Depew, of Floyd county, for Lieutenant Governor.

MATAMORIS, MEXICO, June 12.—Government troops have made a stand at Saltillo and Camargo, and the commander give assurances of ability to check the advance of the Revolutionists.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Horace Greeley will be one of the pall bearers at Bennett's funeral to-morrow.

Thermometer 90 to-day.

It is evident that the enthusiasm of the numerous trades in favor of strikes is fading out. It is stated that large defections have taken place to-day among the sewing workmen, coachmakers, and others.

A German band, Emperor William's Cornet Quartette, Madame Pescha Leuttner, the great soprano, and Herr Strauss, the great composer, are expected to arrive here to morrow.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 12.—A large number of societies to attend the Saengerfest, arrived last night and this morning, and others will reach here to-day. All preliminary arrangements for the festival have been completed. The weather is clear, and very warm. The streets are thronged with citizens and strangers, and all the space in the vicinity of Turner's Hall, where the procession will be formed, is densely packed with spectators. The enfire city is in holiday attire. The decorations are very elaborate and general.

Every block in the city is hadsomely embellished with evergreens, flags, banners and appropriate mottoes. The procession which is now forming, will be the largest and most brilliant that has ever traversed our streets. About one hundred singing societies, nearly all local, civic associations, military companies, the fire department and thousands of citizens on foot, on horseback and in carriages, bands, banners, flags, mottoes, etc., will be in line.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., June 12.—Hendricks in accepting the nomination, and referring to the Baltimore Convntion, said he thought the action of this Convention foreshadowed the result of that to be action of which he pledges his support. He was not afraid of one man power, but he was afraid of the rings by which Gen. Grant was surrounded. Concluding he said we have turned our backs upon the past, we stand in the present and look to the future—the past is lost to us, the future is ours—Let us make it a glorious one.

The Convention resolved that the principles of the Cincinnati Liberal Convention, taken in connection with the propositions of Horace Greeley's letter of acceptance of the nomination, constitutes a platform on which all the elements of opposition to the present corrupt administration of the Federal Government can

I. G. MITCHELL, Chairman.

IT affords us considerable gratification to find the growing extent in the business of one of our liberal patrons. We now refer to the London Store, from the orders which they are daily receiving from Athens, Washington, LaGrange, Newnan, Social Circle, Griffin and the adjacent towns. In millinery, suits, etc., etc., this house is well deserving favor. Daily receiving new goods, the excitement kept up at this emporium is cheering these dull times.

REAL ESTATE ITEM.—The inauguration of Public Schools and street railroads in Atlanta has exerted a beneficial influence on the material interests of Atlanta. Population is increasing, and real estate is advancing. Two years ago a gentleman in this city paid $2,900 for one hundred acres of land, two miles from the Passenger Depot, on the Macon and Western Railroad. Yesterday, so we learn, he sold that tract of land for $12,500—or $125 per acre. This is a handsome increase.

DECATUR STREET RAILROAD.—The line of street railroad on Decatur street will be completed by Saturday to the Cemetery. The street has been graded nicely, and has now, no exceeded by any street for beauty. When finished as it ought to be, it will be one of the best streets in the city. This line of road is destined to be the best paying line. It affords safe, speedy and cheap transportation to the Air-Line Depot and the Cemetery. Many who have hitherto been debarred from visiting the Cemetery by lack of means to hire vehicles will avail themselves of the street road. The Sunday travel will be heavy.

THE H. O. HOYT CASE.—The examination in this case was continued yesterday by the introduction of Isaac P. Harris, who testified to the correctness of his former testimony, and introduced the warrants to the various pass bills already testified to. Nothing new was elicited. The total amount paid to H. O. Hoyt during the year 1870, for cross-ties being $39,987 60.

The next witness introduced by the State was J. P. Robinson, who had been on the Western and Atlantic Railroad during part of the year 1869, until Fosdick Blodgett was appointed Superintendent; witness was employed under Colonel Hulbert, in A. L. Harris' department as clerk, and in some sense Assistant Supervisor, and in that capacity he frequently traveled over the road; about the time that Hulbert was removed was employed in taking inventory of wood cross-ties along the road; had proceeded as far as Kingston from Atlanta on that duty, when recalled; has not now his written memorandum but believes from inspection along the road that at that time there was the usual full supply of cross-ties on the road; a great many new ties had been put under the track during 1869; believes over two-thirds of the road had been underlied and was in good condition; there were some small portions that had not been so repaired; witness was in A. L. Harris' department about five or six months.

On cross examination—Witness stated that Colonel Hulbert was brother-in-law to him. I remained on the road till he was removed. I am now holding the position of yard-master in Chattanooga. Witness stated his duties when occupied in A. L. Harris' office. I think in laying a new track 2,300 cross-ties are required per mile. I think there were some pine ties furnished to the road. It is true that, during the winter of 1870, trains frequently run off, but that occurs now sometimes. I state it as my opinion that, at the end of the year 1870, there was an excess of cross-ties on the road to what was generally kept, but I don't know it. The cross-ties would sometimes be received by Colonel A. L. Harris, sometimes by Austin and Chapins, and sometimes by myself. Colonel Austin received ties and hauled them off, and made return to Colonel Harris; sometimes they were paid in cash, sometimes by check. Witness detailed the mode of making up pay-roll, paying parties along line of road, etc.

Martin H. Cooly, states I am Supervisor of the Western and Atlantic Railroad; I first became Supervisor in 1857. I was not on the road during Bullock's administration; went off the road in August, 1868. I retured on the last of February, 1871. I first went on the road in 1852. I was on the construction train and Assistant Superintendent; I used to assist him in receiving cross-ties and wood. There are 138 miles of road from here to Chattanooga; I can't say how many side-tracks; I don't know the number of miles of sidelings, I suppose eight or ten miles, perhaps; there are about 2,300 cross-ties required in a mile, about one-sixth of that is renewed annually to keep up the track; ties are supposed to last, on an average, six years; on an ordinary road-bed, that is the way I make my estimates; I add 50 per cent. of that for side tracks; that would make between twenty-five and twenty-six thousand annually for the whole road; when I received the road in 1871, the road was not in as good condition as when I left it, by a good deal; during last year I had to put down eight or six thousand; when I examined the road I found a great many rotten ones that I had to take out; when I came on the road I found eleven thousand and some odd ties along the line of the road, which were receipted to me on first January, 1871; I don't recollect how many there were when I left in 1868; but in proportion to the condition of the track, there were more left then when I returned; I do not know the condition of the track from 1868 till I returned, as I did not pass over it except at night; I made examination in 1871; my duty required me to do so; the character of the cross-ties was such that I had to take out about eight or six thousand; they were of all kinds of material, some of a kind of timber I never received for that purpose; many of them were unfit for the purpose; some were not of the size I required, which is seven inches thick, eight inches heart face, and eight feet long; many of them were pine with a great deal of sap; they might be forest pine, but they had a great deal of sap.

On cross-examination witness states: The duty of Supervisor is to keep up the road in all its material, to see to the wood, crossties, repair depots, see that they are in order, water tanks, wood racks, bridges and all such that are along the line of the road. I made contracts for wood and crossties for my department. Either I or my assistant received crossties. I don't allow conductors on the train to do it.

We had the road in running order on the 4th July, 1865. The road was then repaired. Many crossties were in inferior quality. I had them all taken out and re-placed the year afterwards. I returned to Atlanta in April, 1865; then there was not standing room for a car on any track in Atlanta. I then brought hands and commenced straightening iron (Sherman's neck ties,) and met the Federals building the road on this side of Marietta.

The whole line from here to Chattanooga would require 303,600 crossties. The average distance of the crossties is two and a half feet from center to center. The strength of the iron might make a difference, but not the ground. The average price of crossties is forty cents—that would make $54,400. Those are what was put down, but I paid for 104,716. There witness enumerated the various sidelings and stations along the road, supposing the whole length of them being from ten to eleven mile.

Witness generally bought the crossties in winter and put them along the road in summer. Total amount reported to me along the road when I received it was 11 663.

Colonel H. P. Farrow was then introduced, for the purpose of proving a conversation with H. O. Hoyt, in reference to the removal of Colonel Hulbert from the road.

After argument, he was withdrawn from the witness stand, and E. D. Cheshire introduced, who testified that he had a private conversation with H. O. Hoyt, just before Colonel Hulbert's removal, in a few days after Hoyt returned from Washington City. Witness went to see Mr. Hoyt, requesting his assistance in procuring a situation in the revenue department, and asked Hoyt why he did not get that one for himself that he had got for Mr. Jennings. His reply was that he wouldn't have it; that he was going to get a better place, in which he would be allowed to keep his own books, and no one to check against him, and report to nobody; he did not say what place; only it was on the State Railroad; if he had got a position at that time, I did not know it. I had other conversations with him. Once I asked him how he was getting along; he said he was making money. I heard him also speaking of other persons; he said he was making a good deal of money, and did not care a d—d who knew it; they could not turn him out; he had all the advantage that he wanted. This conversation was in the crowd near the depot, and not directed particularly to witness; the conversation had been in reference to public reports about the management of the road; the boys were talking to Hoyt, and asked him if he was not uneasy about it; he said he had made enough of money, and they were afraid to turn him out; can't state exact time, but think it was during the summer; think James Cox was present during the time and young Dick Milledge; can't say positively who were there.

In another conversation, when witness asked Hoyt how much he had made, he replied that he was worth two hundred thousand.

On the cross examination, witness stated that he was on the Western and Atlantic Railroad under Hulbert and Blodgett; did not make any thing of it; my salary was $75 per month.

J. A. Doane was introduced to prove that the wood, cross tie and timber book kept by Hoyt was authentic; received without objection by defense.

J. C. Aycock testified that he furnished during 1870 to Western and Atlantic Railroad 1758 cross-ties at 40 cents per tie. Don't recollect the exact number Hoyt paid me for, but he paid me $256; the balance, $446 80, was paid by the Auditing Board.

Entry on book for June, 1870, shown witness, and question asked, Did you not receive this amount of $4 5 20 from Hoyt? Witness replied that he did not think that he did.

By Judge Stephens—

Can you be mistaken?

I don't think I can be mistaken. I know the number of ties I put on the road

When you were paid the balance by the Auditing Board, was all that Hoyt had paid you allowed as a credit?

Witness answered—Yes, sir, that was my understanding at the time.

Did you, or any one by your authority for you, receive any more from Hoyt than the $256? Have you any doubt on that subject?

Witness announced that all the money he received was $256 from Hoyt, and $446 80 from the Auditing Committee. Does not recollect of any one receiving money from Hoyt for him by his authority.

Witness was shown a signature in the book and asked, is that your signature. He replied, no, sir, that is not my signature.

Did you ever have as many as 1,035 cross-ties on the road at one time?

Yes, sir.

On cross-examination witness said, I don't recollect where the money was paid by Hoyt. It was usually paid at the depot. Don't recollect whether I received it in person or by order. Don't think I delivered any cross-ties in 1869 or 1871; delivered some in 1870.

Witness gets at the exact number of cross ties from having paid for the timber, the cutting and hauling of them; counted the cross-ties before they were hauled, to the road, but not afterwards.

The $256 received I don't recollect where I received it, or who from. Don't recollect ever signing any receipt for cross-ties; did not sign my name in that book; see cross marks to that and other names.

W. L. Hedrick, of Tunnel Hill, was introduced to testify as to the delivery of cross-ties; but before the conclusion of his testimony the court adjourned until this morning.

ATTENTION CADETS.—You will meet promptly to-night (Thursday) at Glenn & Wright's Skating Rink for drill.

New Digest

—OF—

GEORGIA REPORTS,

From Vol. 1 to Vol. 40, Inclusive,

IN TWO VOLUMES

BY A. C. BACON.

THE above work is now in the press of Messrs. J. W. Burke & Co., and the first volume will be ready for delivery by June 20th. In it will be found, under its appropriate head, an accurate syllabus of each ruling of the Supreme Court. The syllabus in each case has been carefully compared with the decision, and where required, changes have been made in the text or a new syllabus added. This, however, has been done rarely, and only when necessary to make the syllabus a correct exponent of the ruling of the Court.

This Digest will contain many more subjects than the previous Digest, and also many more subdivisions of subjects. At the end of each subdivision will be found copious references so that with this book the practitioner will not only be able to refer readily to each ruling of the Court, but will also have in most cases the advantage of the text of the headnotes, which the Supreme Court have said, "are made by the Judges." Whenever there was a dissenting Judge, or less than a full bench, this Digist shews the fact.

The book will be issued in the following styles, and at the prices named:

1. One copy, two volumes at $5 per vol $10 00
2. One copy, two volumes carefully inter-leaved throughout with good writing paper, at $6 per vol 12 00
3. One copy, two volumes bound in one 8 00

The superiority of the inter-leaved copies, it is unnecessary to point out to the Student or Practitioner, who appreciates the advantage of having by the side of the rulings of our Supreme Court references upon the same subject to our Statute Law, or to the rulings of the Courts of other States and of England. The single volume will be large and unwieldy, containing eleven hundred pages, and some copies of the work are issued in this form only that it may be within the reach of those who may not be able to buy the two volume copy. The price of the single volume may appear to be high, but it must be remembered that it contains two volumes in one, and on account of the large amount of matter contained in it, the price of the composition (type setting) will be more than twice as much as that of one of the volumes of the Georgia Reports; and the sale of such a book is practically limited to about one-half the lawyers in the State.

Orders to Messrs. J. W. Burke & Co. are respectfully solicited.

A. C. BACON.

New Georgia Bonds for Sale.

STATE TREASURER'S OFFICE,
ATLANTA, GA., April 6th, 1872.

The 7 per cent. State bonds, authorized by an Act approved January 18th, 1872, and issued for the purpose of exchange or redemption of old State bonds of Georgia maturing this year, are now ready for disposal according to the provisions of the bill.

Quite a number have already been sold to Georgians at 90 cents, and an opportunity for a few weeks is offered to obtain them at the State Treasury office at the above price, or they will be exchanged for the old bonds falling due, rating the old bonds at par and the new bonds at 90 cents, the State paying a difference of 10 per cent. in cash.

These new bonds are desirable on several accounts

1. They are issued in strict accordance with law.
2. No more are issued than barely enough to take up the old bonds maturing.
3. They are Redemption bonds, which are rated on the stock market as the very best class of securities.
4. The coupon interest will be paid promptly semi-annually, either in New York or the State Treasury.
5. They are exempt from State taxation.

Orders for purchase, or bonds for exchange can be sent to the State Treasurer in Atlanta, and will receive prompt attention.

There are strong reasons, for these new bonds being at par in a short time, and it is hoped Georgians will continue to show their appreciation, as has the highest Judicial officer of the State, by purchasing twenty-five thousand dollars for himself.

By the advice and approval of the Governor.

N. L. ANGIER,

RAINBOW OF GOLD.

When I was a child I was solemnly told,
When the rainbow appeared in the sky,
That under its foot was a bushel of gold,
That any could get who should hurry;
So I ran where the splendor came down to the ground,
But it fleeted as fast as I ran,
And with all of my search it was nothing I found;
Yet I'm doing the same as a man.

There's the rainbow of love when the affections are young,
The brightest, we think, of the lot.
We follow to find it a thing of the tongue,
Or a foolish abstraction of thought,
There's the rainbow of fame, with its amaranth crown;
We chase it in ominous strife,
We reach where its foot so enticing came down,
And find—we have wasted in life.

Hope's rainbows are ever abroad in the air,
Alluring us fools to pursue,
We follow and follow, and find nothing there,
Save a sprinkle of glittering dew.
Earth's rainbows of promise, so fair to the sight,
Are but fictious at best of the mind;
Their gleams give at most unsubstantial delight,
They fade and leave nothing behind.

Then what of the rainbow that gleams beyond death;
Then promise hereafter! Who is there can tell
If, after the parting of body and breath,
He is sure under that rainbow all will be well?
Can be certain it is the last bow to allure
The one that stoops down on the bushel of gold,
The gold he at last shall possess? Who is sure?
Alas! 'tis a secret we cannot unfold.

The Uses of Ammonia.

Amonia, or spirits of Hartshorn is a powerful alkali and dissolves grease and dirt with ease.

For House Plants.—To make them flourish, put a few drops of the spirits of ammonia in every pint of the water used in watering.

Stains.—For taking out the red stains produced by the strong acids in blue and black cloths, there is nothing better than ammonia.

For Washing Paint.—Put a tablespoonful of ammonia in a quart of moderately hot water, dip in a flannel cloth and then wipe off the woodwork. No scrubbing will be necessary.

The Bath, the Hair.—A teaspoonful ammonia will add much to the refreshing effects of the bath. Nothing is better than ammonia water for clearsing the hair. In every case rinse off the ammonia with clear water.

For Cleaning Hair Brushes, Etc.—Simply shake the brushes up and down in a mixture of one tablespoonful of ammonia to one pint of hot water; when they are cleansed, rinse them in cold water, and stand them in the wind or in a hot place to dry.

For removing greasy spots from any fabric use the ammonia nearly pure, then lay white blotting paper over the spot and iron lightly. In washing lace put about twelve drops in a pint of warm suds. To clean silver, mix two teaspoonful of ammonia in a quart of hot suds. Put in your silverware and wash, using an old nail brush or tooth brush for the purpose.

Scandal for the Ladies.

The Danbury News says that when a couple of young people strongly devoted to each other commence to eat onions it is safe to pronounce them engaged.

A man lady being asked why she had never married, replied that she had never seen a man for whom she was willing to get up three meals a day for forty years.

"Ah! Mr. Simkins, we have not chairs for our company," said a gay wife to her frugal husband. "Plenty of chairs, dear, but too much company," replied Mr. Simkins, with a wink.

A Boston bride, whose groom remonstrated at the wedding for indulging in rather indelicate bestowal of her last maiden kisses on a number of her male friends, remarked, with natural naivite, that the gentlemen in question had been in the habit of kissing her all her life, and she didn't see why they should stop now.

Taking a Genealogy.—It is of the elder Dumas that the following story is told:

A foreigner, having heard with surprise that Dumas was a quadroon, called upon him to verify the fact.

"I am told, began the visitor, "that you are a quadroon, monsieur Dumas."

"Yes," answered Dumas.

"And your father?"

"Was a mulatto! The distinguished General Dumas, of the army of Italy, and a mulatto!" roared the author in tones that left no doubt of the quality of his lungs.

"And his mother?" continued the intruder inquiringly.

"Was a negress," shouted Dumas, rising to his feet.

"And who, may I ask, was her mother?" continued the enterprising and indefatigable borer.

"An ape, sir, an ape," thundered the indignant author. "My family begins exactly where yours ends—waiter show that monkey the door."

Several exchanges, notably the N. Y. Sun, consider the ceremonies of "decoration day" a costly farce. The Star estimates that the 500,000 members of the Grand Army of the Republic could earn $3 each on that day, to which should be added an average of $1 which they would spend during the day. This would make the enormous sum of $800,000, which if passed to the credit of the widows' and orphans fund would be of great practical benefit. The suggestion is a too sensible one to hope for its adoption, and the warriors will continue their showy parades, and the widows and orphans must do the best they can.

Some Massachusetts clergymen take a very peculiar way of collecting pew rent. Rev. Mr. McDonald, of Haverhill, was before the police court the other day for kicking a woman in church because she insisted upon occupying a new, the rent of which she had neglected to pay. The court held that this was a proper way to collect pew rent, and the reverend gentleman had to pay twenty dollars for the assault upon his parishioner. As to whether it was the proper behavior for a pastor in church, and becoming treatment of one of the flock by the shepherd, of course the court had nothing to say. Neither have we.—Index.

To the United States.—It is time to find out something still remains to the country besides death and taxes. The returns of the census of 1870 makes the value of real and personal estate in the United States, exclusive of the possessions of the General Government, amount to $30,068,509,507. If this estimate be accepted as correct, it shows that, notwithstanding the war, there has been a remarkable increase in the wealth of the nation since 1860, when the entire valuation was placed at $16,159,616,-

The cause of Temperance finds some of its most insidious and dangerous foes in the many so-called "tonics" and "appetizers," made of cheap whisky and refuse liquors, finished up to suit depraved appetites, under the name of medicines. Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are none of these. They are not a beverage, but a genuine medicine, purely vegetable, prepared from California herbs by a regular physician. For all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, skin and blood, they are an infallible and unrivalled remedy. may14-d1m.

Have it Always at Hand.—Accidents will happen in the best regulated families, and for this reason among many others, the Mustang Liniment should find a place in the cupboard of every household. In all the world there is nothing capable to it as an application for cuts, contusions, burns, spasms, and scalds, and when every other preparation that medical ingenuity can suggest, has failed to afford relief in rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, glandular swellings, muscular contractions, cramps, toothache, &c. this powerful anti-inflammatory and pain destroying agent immediately assuages the sufferer's agony and eventually accomplishes a radical cure. Probably there is not a connoiseur in horseflesh or an amateur horseman in the land who does not know, either from personal observation or reports that the Mustang Liniment is the supreme remedy for all external diseases and injuries of the horse.

Causeless Depression.—This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all such cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an alterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilious complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be over-estimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative.

GEORGIA, Fulton County.
To the Superior Court of said county:
Your petitioner, Paul Jones, Senior, showeth that in due course of trade and for a valuable consideration, on the 19th day of December, 1871, by purchase from Jesse C. Kyle, he acquired title to a promissory note (here to the Court shown) for the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars, made by Amy H Sells, W A S Rondeau and P H Snook, payable to said Kyle, or bearer, dated February 18th, 1871, and due on or before the first day of January, 1872; and that at the same time he, by assignment from the said Kyle, acquired title to a mortgage deed, (here also to the Court shown) executed by said Amy H. Sells to said Kyle and his assigns, to secure the payment of said note, and bearing even date therewith; which mortgage deed covers and embraces all that tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the city of Atlanta, and being part of A J Orme's subdivision of block number one hundred and forty-six, in original lot number fifty-one, in the fourteenth district of originally Henry now Fulton county—said portion fronting north on East Harris street, one hundred and eighty-three feet and running back on Butler street two hundred and two feet, with all the rights, members and appurtenances to the said premises in anywise belonging.
Your petitioner avars that the condition of said mortgage deed is broken, that said note is wholly unpaid, and that the amount due thereon is eight thousand dollars, principal, besides lawful interest from maturity. He therefore prays that said mortgage may be foreclosed, and that the usual rule to that end be granted and served according to law.
L. E. BLECKLEY.
Petitioner's Attorney.
June 7, 1872.

On filing the foregoing petition, it is ordered by the court that the said mortgagor, Amy H. Sells, pay into court on or before the first day of the next term, to-wit, the second Monday in October next, the principal, interest and cost, or show cause why the equity of redemption in and to the said mortgaged premises should not be forever barred and foreclosed; and that this rule be served as prescribed by law.
L. E. BLECKLEY,
June 7, 1872. Petitioner's Attorney.
